ROAD ACCIDENTS IN DELHI
RAVINDRA KUMAR PANDEY;RENU KUMARI SINGH

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the accidents are on the increase on the roads in Delhi for not following the traffic rules and rash driving;

(b) whether the Government have taken some effective and latest measures to prevent the increasing number of road accidents in Delhi;

(c) if so, the details thereof;

(d) the number of cases of road accidents registered in Delhi with the police stations during the last two years and till date; and

(e) the number of such cases disposed of alongwith the number of those lying pending?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (CH. VIDYASAGAR RAO)

(a): There is a marginal increase in the number of cases of accidents reported on Delhi roads.

(b)&(c): The steps taken by the Traffic Police to reduce number of road accidents include use of radar guns, interceptors and red speed camaras for speed checking, red light jumping and inforcement of lane discipline; use of alcometer to check drunken driving; analysis of road accidents for identification of their actual cause so as to take remedial measures; imparting education to the public about traffic rules and safety norms; and setting up of traffic training parks for educating school children.

(d)&(e): The requisite details are given in the attached statement.
